THE FACTS

15. On or about May 26, 2012, at around 1:30 a.m., Plaintiff Larry Wilburn, Jr. was a passenger in an automobile driven by Anthony Payne through the City of Albany.

16. At the intersection of Judson Street and Second Street, in the City of Albany, the automobile was unlawfully stopped by Defendant Albany Police Officers.

17. Defendant Albany Police Officer opened the passenger side door of the car and grabbed Mr. Wilburn's shoulder.

18. Defendant Albany Police Officers pulled Mr. Wilburn out of the car and threw him to the ground.

19. Defendant Albany Police Officers kicked Mr. Wilburn in the face, causing Mr. Wilburn to lose consciousness.

20. Defendant Albany Police Officers continued to kick and punch Mr. Wilburn while he was unconscious.

21. The actions of Defendant Albany Police Officers caused Mr. Wilburn numerous injuries and severe pain and suffering.

22. Then, in the absence of a thorough or proper investigation, without probable cause and/or an arrest warrant, Mr. Wilburn was falsely arrested by Defendant Albany Police Officers and falsely charged with certain criminal offenses, constituting a malicious prosecution under both federal and state law.

23. Mr. Wilburn was taken before Albany City Court for arraignment and was remanded to the care and custody of the Albany County Sheriff's Office.

24. Mr. Wilburn remained unlawfully incarcerated in Albany County Correctional Facility from approximately May 26, 2012 until June 22, 2012.

25. At some point Albany Police Officers unlawfully searched Mr. Wilburn's home and confiscated $100.00 U.S. Currency, a bracelet, and a ring, which have not been returned to Mr. Wilburn.

26. While incarcerated in Albany County Correctional Facility, Mr. Wilburn experienced severe pain and suffering from the numerous injuries, including a fractured jaw, inflicted upon him by Defendant Albany Police Officers.

27. While incarcerated in Albany County Correctional Facility, Mr. Wilburn was fed only bouillon cubes and was not permitted to shower due to the injuries caused by Defendant Albany Police Officers.

28. While incarcerated in Albany County Correctional Facility, Mr. Wilburn made numerous requests for medical assistance and hospital care.

29. Mr. Wilburn's requests for medical assistance and hospital care were either refused or ignored by John/Jane Doe 2 through 5, and other agents, servants, and/or employees of the County of Albany, the Albany County Sheriff's Office and/or CMC.

30. Because Mr. Wilburn was not provided adequate and necessary medical assistance and care while incarcerated at Albany County Correctional Facility, Mr. Wilburn suffered additional unnecessary pain and his injuries, including his fractured jaw, did not heal properly.

31. By the time Mr. Wilburn was brought to a hospital, the medical professionals had to take corrective procedures and re-break his jaw, which caused Mr. Wilburn additional unnecessary pain.

32. Mr. Wilburn's jaw was then wired shut for approximately one month.

33. Significantly, Mr. Wilburn was never indicted on the criminal charges.

34. On or about October 9, 2013, the criminal charges were dismissed by an Albany City Court Judge at the direction and on the motion of Mr. Wilburn.

35. At all times relevant Defendant City of Albany failed to adequately train and/or supervise the individual agents, employees, and/or servants of the City of Albany Police Department, named and unnamed, to avoid the constitutional violations of Plaintiff's rights and resultant damages described herein.

36. At all times relevant Defendants Hon. Craig D. Apple and the County of Albany, failed to adequately train and/or supervise the individual agents, employees, and/or servants of the Albany County Sheriff's Office, named and unnamed, to avoid the constitutional violations of Plaintiff's rights, negligence, and resultant damages described herein.

37. At all times relevant Defendant CMC failed to adequately train and/or supervise its individual agents, employees, and/or servants, named and unnamed, to provide necessary and adequate medical care and assistance and to avoid the harmful acts and omissions, negligence, and resultant damages described herein.

38. As a result of the aforesaid acts of the Defendants, Mr. Wilburn suffered severe and permanent personal injury, pain and suffering, financial hardship and intentional and negligent infliction of emotional harm and other items of damages.

39. As a result of the aforesaid acts of the Defendants, Mr. Wilburn was deprived of rights, privileges and/or immunities secured by the Constitution and laws of the United States and has been damaged thereby.
